g. Approve ECEAP Complex Needs Fund

Presenter: Charlotte Throgmorton

DCYF ECEAP is pleased to inform you of Ephrata School District's successful Complex Needs application! DCYF will award Ephrata School District $10,000 to support children with Complex Needs such as developmental delays, and/or challenging behaviors due to complex trauma.

These funds will be used to purchase sensory and visual supplies that will be used both in the Speech Room and the other classroom housed at Tiger Cub Pre-School.

Books will be purchased that support social stories. A social story is a narrative made to illustrate certain situations and problems and how people deal with them. They help children with autism understand social norms and learn how to communicate with others appropriately.

Examples:

Light-up Countdown Timer

Sensory Mats

Early Learning Poster Pack

Education Station for outside playground

Social Stories Books

5. Hearing of Individuals/Groups

a. Teaching with Masks On

Presenter: Ali Mantese

Ali Mantese, Grant School teacher, would like to address the Board regarding the frustrations associated with teaching students wearing masks.

b. Correspondence

1. March 8 -12, 2021 was declared by Governor Inslee as Educational Support Professionals Week. Thank you to all our exceptional staff members that help ensure that our schools run smoothly on a daily basis.
2. March 15-21, 2021 was declared by Governor Inslee as School Retirees Appreciation Week. Thank you to all our retired or retiring school employees who have worked tirelessly throughout the years to make the Ephrata School District what it is today.
